

● DIAL-LITES

TODAY

12:00-KNX—Norman Corwin, radio dramatist, is featured on the CBS Symphony Orchestra, when he will read excerpts from "Leaves of Grass" to background music, followed by musical compositions significant of Memorial Day.

2:00-KHJ—It's monkey business which supplies the adventure for "The Shadow" when a series of deaths result from the escape of a powerful ape.

4:00-4:30-KNX—Both Jack Benny and Amos and Andy will bid the airways adieu until next fall, on their broadcasts today.

6:30-KECA—Boris Karloff and Joan Loring will be starred in A. A. Milne's popular detective comedy, "The Perfect Alibi," when this play is presented by the "Theater Guild of the Air." This is a delightful "whodunit," told with economy and competence.

8:00-KNX—There's trouble aplenty for "Rocky Jordan" when a motion-picture company arrives in Cairo and the "Make-Up Man" is attacked. The police think it a publicity stunt, but Rocky finds it's for real.

9:15-KHJ—This is a preview of the Annual Speedway Classic from Indianapolis, with interviews of racing car drivers and owners. . . . The race will be broadcast tomorrow, with the start at 8:30 a. m., and additional information given at 9:30, 10:45 and 12:30, when the winning car is expected to enter Victory Lane.