

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

6:00-KNX-Irene Dunne and James Mason will be heard on "Radio Theater" as the stars of "Anna and the King of Siam."

7:00-KNX-Mr. Rhinelander buys a new boat and christens it "Helen II." "My Friend Irma" reads the news in the paper and decides that he is replacing his present spouse with a new one. With righteous indignation she blunders in where angels fear to tread.

8:00-KECA-A special musical ceremony featuring the career and music of Carrie Jacobs Bond will be presented by Gordon MacRae and Lucille Norman on the "Railroad Hour."

8:00-KHJ-A mother's fear for her son's life, and his desire to protect his mother complicate "A Matter of Doubt" . . . But a solution is reached in "Let George Do It."

9:00-KFI-A program appropriate to Memorial Day will be presented by the "Telephone Hour" featuring Polyna Stoska.