

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

6:00-KFI—Describing himself as a cosmopolitan man of charm, looks, and independent means, "Archie" of "Duffy's Tavern" advertises via the personal column for a dream girl . . . it develops that all the "dream girls" dreams are of gold.

7:30-KNX—With the advent of June, the romantic month, Lucille Norman will sing a medley of tunes appropriate to the season featuring "June Is Bustlin' Out All Over." for the listeners of "Hollywood Music Hall."

8:30-KHJ—Lloyd Nolan will be host to Jeanne Cagney who will star in "The Hidden Heart," the story of a self-made businessman who finds that this philosophy of self-sufficiency has many flaws. This is another enlightening drama presented by "Family Theater."

8:30-KFI—For his last crusade of this season "The Great Gildersleeve" launches a protest against modern education when he finds Leroy is being taught folk dancing at school, but he finds himself won over when he winds up bowling with the girl's gym instructor.

9:00-KECA—Bing Crosby rings down this season with a solid session of songs in a recap of the 15 top tunes of the year. This special show will have several famous musicians sitting in for the occasion . . . truly a dream come true, your favorite boy, and your favorite songs.