Bill Doudna's SPOTI IGH Arthur Kreutz

Arthur Kreutz, former Madison musician who taught last summer at the University of Wisconsin music school, will go to Europe next month as musical director of a Shakespearean company.

The Danish National theater has invited a group of American actors to do "Hamlet" in its original setting-Kronberg castle at Elsinore. Kreutz will be with the troupe, conducting the incidental music which he wrote while on the Wisconsin campus last year.

During June and July, the company will appear at Elsinore and at Wiesbaden and Berlin, Germany.

AT DALLAS: "Starlight Operetta," the summer theater at Texas State fair park in Dallas, will open June 20 with Kenny Baker in "Up in Central Park." This show will run to July 3.

The rest of the schedule:

July 4-10, Marion Bell and John Raitt in "Rose Marie."

July 11-17, Nanette Fabray in "Bloomer Girl." July 18-24, "Look, Ma, I'm Dancin'."

July 25-31, Ilona Massey in 'Bittersweet."

"Bittersweet."
Aug. 1-7, Vivienne Segal and
Georgia Tapps in "Pal Joey."
Aug. 8-14, Polyna Stoska in
"The Chocolate Soldier."
Aug. 15-28, Carol Bruce and
Hal LeRoy in "Show Boat."

AT JUILIARD: Only one of the 200 young musicians graduating at the Juilliard School of Music last week was from Wisconsin. She was Marion Lorraine Raether, Wauwatosa. She received a diploma in violin.
