

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

7:00-KECA—Lesly Grey, talented song stylist, will warble "I Wish I Had a Wishbone" when she guests on the "Curt Massey Show." Curt himself sings "Fiddle-a-Delphia" and "My Dream Is Yours" on this all-music program.

7:00-KNX—The popular expression, "Drop dead," is no joke to a man who finds people doing just that when he says these magic words. This is the weird drama presented by the "Playhouse" tonight.

8:00-KHJ—As its contribution to the Association of American Indian Affairs, "Straight Arrow" will feature a salute to all American Indians for their efforts in behalf of the American heritage.

8:30-KECA—The body of a murdered man is used by two hoboes to shake down the boss of a construction company when they are under investigation by the "FBI" for inferior construction of a city airport. The "Runaway Corpse" is passed off as that of the head bookkeeper until this devious plot is exposed.

9:00-KNX—George would like to die when he sees Liz with her newly dyed raven tresses. In fact he is about to make a play for a lovely stranger when he discovers his "black" mistake in "My Favorite Husband."

TOMORROW

Special—President Harry S. Truman will make an address at the dedication of the War Memorial Park, in Little Rock, Ark.

KHJ will carry this at 12:30. KECA at 1:30 and KNX at 3:00 p. m.
