

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

6:00-KHJ — Sen. Bourke Hickenlooper, whose charges against David Lilienthal, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, has provoked a hearing in Congress, will be interviewed by a panel of prominent newsmen on "Meet the Press."

6:30-KFT — When Judy Canova hears that the upper crust Dodges are planning to entertain nobility, she gallantly attempts to wangle an invitation . . . failing that, she manages to crash the party in a fantastically amusing manner.

8:00-KECA — With the real "Lone Ranger" bound and gagged in an outlaw's cabin, "The Substitute Ranger" attempts to pass himself off as the defender of law and order.

8:00—"Spike Jones" has announced that this show will cover everything from boxing to Beethoven . . . the boxing angle will be upheld by Kirk Douglas, the handsome star of "Champion," while the musical portion will be discussed by the "Musical Round Table," described by Spike as "a bunch of squares sitting at a round table."

10:30-KHJ — An hour-long musical tribute to the memory of Patrick Henry will be presented by the "Chicago Theater of the Air" on their summertime concert series. Ruth Slater, contralto, and Bruce Fode, baritone, will be the vocal soloists.