

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

6:00-KNX — "Radio Theater" has selected the delightful farce, "The Bachelor and the Bobby-Soxer," starring Cary Grant and Shirley Temple in their original screen roles, as its presentation tonight.

7:00-KFI—Buddy Clark and the "Contented Hour" will play host to the outstanding piano duo of Gallan and Meadenez.

8:00-KECA—With a salute to Stephen Foster, "The Railroad Hour," with Gordon MacRae at the controls, brings Lucille Norman to join him in singing such well-loved Foster gems as "Jeanie With the Light Brown Hair" and "Old Kentucky Home."

8:30-KHJ — A new mystery series titled "Murder by Experts" debuts tonight featuring John Dickson Carr, famous detective novelist, as narrator-host.

9:00-KNX—When the "Curious Corpse" is found under strange circumstances, the evidence points to a money-lending doctor and his young wife who turn up a number of harrowing clues.