

DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

6:00-KNX—The cast of the "Busybody" starts out as a strictly routine investigation on the CBS show, "Adventures of Philip Marlowe." The trail leads to a silent house and blood in a cedar closet.

7:00-KFI—Though Dennis Day⁴ usually revels in the sunshine, he directs all of his energy to producing rain during this broadcast . . . the ensuing comedy spasms are hilarious.

8:00-KHJ—Julius Dolly, 56-year-old father of the famed Dolly sisters, will be the special guest panelist tonight during the airing of "Life Begins at 80" broadcast. Mr. Dolly is still active in the art world.

9:00-KNX—Spike Jones has promised tonight to show Diana Lynn a few things about music that she never dreamed existed, when she guest stars on the program with the famous "Massacre of Music" gang. Of course there will be Doodles Weaver with his antics.

10:30-KHJ—Two successful career performance auditioners of last year will be co-starred during the airing of the summertime session of "Chicago Theater."
