TODAY

12:30-KHJ—The five first-prize winners of the nation-wide juvenile art contest conducted by "Juvenile Jury" will be named during the airing of that fun feature today. The contest board was headed by artist Norman Rockwell and John Groth.

1:00-KECA—Tenor Lauritz Melchior's recording of the prize song from Wagner's "Die Meistersinger" will be featured, along with selections from four other operas on the "Milton Cross Opera Album" show today.

3:30-KNX—It's Father's Day in the Nelson family . . . and it really becomes a full-fledged family affair when Harriet, David and Rickey decide to provide a pleasant day during the "ol' man's holiday."

5:00-KFI—Fred Allen is reported to be singing cowboy songs in the shower again . . . and this very painful report made by Portland can mean only one thing—another western musical program for today.

5:50-KFI—This time we have him in person . . . Lauritz Melchior, who will be guest soloist for the NBC Symphony Orchestra summer concert tonight. The orchestra is under the direction of Fritz Reiner.

8:00-KNX—Just pucker up and blow, non, blow . . . 'cause when a small man with a big man's ambitions is shipwrecked on a lonely island . . . the "Whistler" cuts loose with an eerie story of murder that is really a spine-tingler.
