

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

7:00-KHJ—When one of Greg Hood's old friends dies mysteriously, the stage is set for a fast-paced entry from the "Casebook of Gregory Hood."

7:00-KFI—In this week's Erle Stanley Gardner series, "A Life in Your Hands," Jonathan Kegg will prove the innocence of a circus knife-thrower on trial for murder.

8:00-KECA—At this time for the next three nights, ABC will attempt to diagnose the present recession in business, touching on the subjects: "Jobs and Wages" . . . "Prices" . . . "Money and Taxes."

8:30-KNX—A worried young lady visits "Mr. and Mrs. North," seeking protection from a thug. but as things turn out, the thug is the one that needs the protection.

9:00-KFI—By request, the widely acclaimed safe-driving drama, "Death at the Wheel," will be repeated on "Big Town." This is an effort to reduce the heavy accident toll expected on the holiday week end.