

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

5:00-KNX—Foswee Reese, short-stop-captain of the Brooklyn Dodgers and generally acknowledged as one of baseball's infielding greats, will be the guest on the premier broadcast of "Red Barber's Clubhouse" . . . a brand new sports show.

7:00-KHJ—A crew of madcap gag-writers will be guesting tonight on the "Take a Number" show. Emcee Red Benson will tease out the questions submitted by listeners.

8:00-KHJ—Mrs. Valerie Bell, 80-year-old retired editor and fashion authority, will be the guest panellist tonight on the "Life Begins at 80" program. This show usually proves to be very humorous.

9:00-KECA—Here is a new show and some facts pertinent to its format . . . Music of Buzz Adlam and 20-man orchestra, with a different guest singer and guest interviewee each week. . . . Name of the show, "Buzz Adlam's Playroom" . . . starting tonight for the first time.

9:00-KNX—How a fortune was made by stealing cars . . . and lost through dealing in penny candy is told in "The Case of the Ambitious Auto Thieves," as presented by "Gangbusters."