

● DIAL-LITES

TODAY

12:00 Noon-KNK — Featuring an All-American program for this . . . the day before Independence Day, the CBS Symphony will play music from the works of Victor Herbert, Richard Rodgers and Bernard Herrmann.

12:30-KHJ—A five-broadcast series of mystery and adventure will start on the Mutual network today, as they present the series titled "Mystery Hall." The first program of this series will be about "Scoop Davis," a newspaperman on a Broadway beat.

1:00-KFI — An Independence Day fable will be dramatized today on the documentary series of programs titled "Living—1949."

4:00-KFI—A new series, titled "Voices and Events," will make its debut this afternoon when this new news program, featuring a review of the week's news through live comment and recordings, gets aired.

4:30-KFI—For you Lombardo fans . . . and there are plenty . . . here is good news. The entire Lombardo crew will be on hand from here on out for the balance of the summer to replace Alice Faye and Phil Harris . . . and so here they are . . . Guy Lombardo and his orchestra.

6:30-KFCA—Very few contestants have ever come out with the complete house, et al, as offered on "Go for the House" program. . . . Will someone do it tonight?

7:00-KNX — "Life With Luigi," that popular comedy starring J. Carrol Naish as a whimsical young immigrant caught in Chicago's melting pot, continues the summer in this new time period.