

Today's Outstanding Radio Programs, Classified

New Programs

12:15 p. m.—Here's Hollywood (WISC): correspondents' panel on week's filmland news.

2:30 p. m.—Mystery Hall (WKOW): showcase of new-type dramas; "Scoop Davis," tale of Broadway reporter.

4:30 p. m.—Hollywood Calling (WIBA): preview of NBC's new telephone-quiz program, with George Murphy as master of ceremonies; unique prizes, giant jack-pot, guest stars from movie lots.

8 p. m.—Voices and Events (WIBA): based on week's top news stories, with James Fleming (ex-Baraboo) as editor-in-chief.

8:30 p. m.—Guy Lombardo (WIBA): replaces Phil Harris and Alice Faye.

7 p. m.—Four-Star Playhouse (WIBA): opens with Rosalind Russell in Edna Ferber's "Welcome to Our City."

7:30 p. m.—Shellah Graham (WGN): reports on Hollywood.

8:30 p. m.—Flavored with Flute (WKOW): Canadian program featuring Gordon Day, flutist, and Bill Brady sextet.

Religion

8 a. m.—Bible Highlights (WMAQ): "Infantilism in Religion." . . . Church of the Air (WBBM): the Rev. G. H. Guiot,

MURPHY

LOMBARDO

St. Louis Catholic, on "The Cruz of Life: Love of Each Other."

8:45 a. m.—Art of Living (WMAQ): "How to Keep from Being Irritated."

10 a. m.—Ave Maria Hour (WISC): "St. Helen."

10:15 a. m.—Sacred Heart (WFOV): "Child Saints in Early Church."

10:30 a. m.—Hour of Faith (WISC): the Rev. J. F. Cronin on "A Program for Industrial Peace."

11 a. m.—Voice of Prophecy (WENR): "Joseph and Jesus."

12:30 p. m.—Sunday Vespers (WISC): "Doing As You Please."

4 p. m.—Catholic Hour (WMAQ): the Rev. J. J. Walde, Oklahoma City, on "Love for Country."

Discussion

10:30 a. m.—Reviewing Stand (WKOW): "Watch Your Language," Profs. L. D. Barnhart, Northwestern; Otto Wirth, Roosevelt; Roland Wolsley, Syracuse.

11:30 a. m.—Round Table (WMAQ): "What Should We Do About China?"; Profs. G. E. Taylor of Washington, D. F. Lach of Chicago; Stanley K. Hornbeck.

1:45 p. m.—Veteran Wants to Know (WHA): Gen. Omar N. Bradley.

9:30 p. m.—Peoples Platform (WBBM): "Independence and the American Way."

10:15 p. m.—Rotary Forum (WKOW): Bill Walker interviews four businessmen from Korea.

Drama

9 a. m.—Destination Freedom (WMAQ): story of Dorothy Maynor.

10:30 a. m.—Eternal Light (WMAQ): building of synagogue in Rhode Island just before American Revolution.

3:30 p. m.—Proudly We Hall (WFOV): Bill Williams in "Time Out."

3:35 p. m.—"Authors of Liberty" (WIBA): special program.

4 p. m.—Family Hour (WBBM): Kirk Douglas as Nathan Hale.

5:30 p. m.—Call the Police (WBBM): salutes Milwaukee detective bureau for work in Babich case.

RUSSELL LEVANT

6:30 p. m.—Life With Luigi (WBBM): at new time.

Documentary

2:30 p. m.—It's Your Life (WMAQ): fun and fatality on "The Furious Fourth."

3 p. m.—Living 1949 (WIBA): "The Biggest Firecracker." . . . "KSA-293" (WHA): Madison life as heard through police department's telephones and radios, sheriff's and fire departments' radios.

8 p. m.—The White House Story (probably WBBM): press conference, remodeling operations, interviews.

Music

7:30 a. m.—Guest Star (WIBA): Dorothy Kirsten.

11:05 a. m.—Jewish Music

(WISC): "The Photos," "By Mine."

11:00 a. m.—Piano Playhouse (WISC): Bart Wild and Eugene Sheppard, guests.

11 a. m.—Symphonies (WBBM): first movement of "New World" symphony, American music.

1 p. m.—CBS Symphonies (WBBM): Bernard Herrmann, conductor; all-American program—Herbert Rodgers, March, Herrmann.

3:30 p. m.—Plus Arts Quartet (WISC): "Quartet in B Flat Major" ("The Eyes"), Masses.

8 p. m.—Charlton (WBBM): "The Hills of Home," "Home on the Range."

8 p. m.—Bill Parrott on Parade (WBBM): Fiddie Page in 1941 hits

7:30 p. m.—NBC Symphonies (WIBA): Arthur Fiedler, conductor; Oscar Levant, pianist; "Knightsbridge March," variations on "I Got Rhythm," "Fugue" also from "Eugene Onegin," "Jobberworky," Anderson's "Blue Suite," first movement of Grieg's A-minor piano concerto. "Stars and Stripes Forever."

8:30 p. m.—Familiar Music (WIBA): "Only a Fool," "A Waltz Was Born in Vienna," "Roses of Picardy," "Just an Echo in the Valley."

Sports

12:30 p. m.—Baseball (WBBM): Cubs vs. Pirates.

1:45 p. m.—Baseball (WBBM): White Sox at Detroit.

8 p. m.—Baseball (WFOV)