DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

5:00-KNX-"Escape," the favorite dramatic series which features top mystery and adventure stories, returns to the air tonight.
6:30-KFL-Dorothy Lamour ends her year-long run on "Variety Theater" with two of the songs for which she has received the most requests. She will also be joined by the "Great Gildersleeve," who is making his third guest appearance on her program, 7:00-FFI-Fred Waring.

7:80 KFI— Dragnet.

(A reshuffling of time spots for these two shows.)

7:80-KHJ—When a town is run by a crooked mayor, it's a cinch there's a job for "Red Ryder." This time he is hired by a newspaper editor to ferret out the renegades "North of Dallas." 2:00-KECA—"Play It Again." your favorites new and old, ranging from "You" to "On the Trail."

9:00-KNX—Four experts on inter-200-KNX—Four experts on inter-200-KNX—Four experts on inter-

Trail."

Sigo-KNX—Four experts on international affairs will discuss the question. "How Can Western Civilization Survive?" The moderator will be Dr. James Read of the Friends' service committee, who will lead the panelisis: Dr. Eduard Heimann. professor of economics at the New School for Social Research; Mr. Bayard Rustin, secretary of the Fellowship.

tin, seccretary of the Fellowship of Reconciliation, and Dr. George Reavey, fellow of the Russian Institute at Columbia University.