TONIGHT

8:00-KFI—Ray Milland and Maureen O'Sullivan will have the leads in the radio adaptation of the "Big Clock," the thriller about a press lord who murders a woman in a moment of pique. This mystery-film success is presented by the "Screen Directors Playhouse."

8:30-KECA—When Ruth, the night club hat-check girl, is murdered, all available evidence points to a tall dark stranger as the guilty person . . . but when the "Sheriff" enters the case, things are cleared up for the "Stranger on Danger Street."

7:00-KHJ—"This Is Paris" . . . Paris at its best with Maurice Chevalier singing the novelty French tune "Ca Va, Ca Va" and his own "intimita le arrangement" of that hillbilly favorite "Brush Those Tears From Your Eyes."

8:30-KFI—When the husbands in town conspire to reform a too-charming bachelor, their wives resent the plot . . . "My Good Wife" can always use a spare man.

8:30-KNX—"Summer in St. Louis" a new one-hour musical series featuring stars of the St. Louis Municipal Opera has its premiere tonight. They will be heard singing melodies from "Annie Get Your Gun" on the musical comedy side and light opera gems from the "Bartered Bride."
