

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

President Truman will address the nation on all major radio networks tonight in a discussion of the highlights of his economic message sent to Congress yesterday. The stations listed are KFI, KHJ, KECA and KNX. The talk also will be televised.

8:00-KFI-Billie Burke and Harry Von Zell are co-starred in the new comedy series "Chicken Every Sunday."

8:00-KNX-Sir Adrian Boult, British conductor, will lead the N. Y. Philharmonic Orchestra on tonight's "Stadium Concert." Frances Magnes, violinist, is guest soloist.

7:00-KHJ-William, Shakespeare is the author chosen by "Comedy Playhouse" for their play tonight. His "Taming of the Shrew" is a classic example of a comic situation.

8:30-KHJ-"Family Theater" inaugurates a new series featuring famous literary works. Leading off tonight they will present Herman Melville's "Moby Dick."

9:30-KFI-An alert police dog assists "Mr. District Attorney" in solving a strange disappearance of family pets.