DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT:

S:60-KNX. Rudyard Kipling's exciting story of the adventures of two British drummer boys on the North India border will be dramatized on tonight's thrilling "Escape" program, The boy ing "Escape" program. The boy drummers arouse the fighting spirit of their regiment after a disorderly retreat before Pathan warriors. 6:39-EECA. Claire Trevor guest

6:30-KECA. Claire Trevor guest stars, on tonight's "Name The Movie" program as she joins the regular stars, Clark Dennis and Peggy Mann in the weekly musical movie quiz. Dennis will sing a memory medley of popular songs recalling some of the old dance crares.

7:66-KHJ. Do ubla crossing a reland proves extremely dangeriar songs recating some of the cold dance crares.

7:66-KHJ. Double crossing a friend proves extremely dangerous as Mike Waring discovers that sometimes "Murder Hides What Isn't There," on tonight's exciting episode of the "Adventures of the Faicon."

7:66-KNX. A lady psychlatriat

7:00-ENX. A lady psychlatrist with a violent dislike for comic books is the central figure in tonight's baffling mystery on the "First Nighter" program. The police find comic books are no laughing matter in this fast-moving mystery-romance.