Janet M. Fisher, Cleveland, O., will be guest soloist with the University of Wisconsin Summer band in its concert at 7 tonight on the Memorial Union terrace.

Miss Fisher, a graduate student in the university summer session, teaches vocal music at Roosevelt Junior High school in Cleveland and is soprano soloist with the choir at Cleveland's Euclid Ave. Christian church. She is a graduate of Western Reserve university.

Miss Fisher will sing "Will You Remember?"

Emmett Sarig, of the university music school, will conduct the concert, which will be open to the public without charge. High school band leaders attending the music clinic will take over as guest conductors for some numbers.

The program will include "Overture for Band," Mendelssohn, and "Summer Day Suite," Prokofieff.

FROM RADIO ROW: The 1949 "Miss America" contest at Atlantic City will be televised—first time this has happened.

Sunday's "Living—1949" will be a documentary report on the circus from Rome to Ringling.

The University of Chicago Round Table will do a series of five discussions on "How's Business," starting Sunday.

Gunnar Back, heard on CBS "Farm News" from Washington on Saturdays, is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin who started his radio career at WHA. He has been on CBS' Washington staff since 1939.

Janet Darwell has auditioned a show about life in a theatrical boarding house, Radio Daily reports.

"Beulah," the five-a-week series with Hattie McDaniel, returns to CBS on Aug. 22.

Dick Haymes or Buddy Clark will replace Bob Crosby when "Club 15" returns. New York is betting on Haymes.

NBC has prepared a comedy series, "Inside Brooklyn," which the Billboard says may hit the air almost immediately.

Jack Paar will return to NBC with his own show, probably in late summer.

Fall will bring a better time spot for "Spin to Win," now on at 8 p. m. daily Madison time.

When Burns and Allen join CBS on Sept. 21, they'll have a new sponsor—a drug firm. They follow the Bing Crosby show.

Eddie Cantor will have his first ad lib assignment when he replaces Gary Moore on "Take It or Leave It" Sept. 11.

ABC is planning a new audience-participation show starring Jack McCoy as master of ceremonies.

Humphrey Bogart will have a new program, "Stories for Men," next season, says the Hollywood Reporter, which also reports Billie Burke framing a daytime series.

Truman Bradley, announcer, is back on the Hollywood scene after a year off the air.
