TONIGHT

6:00-KNX—Comedian Bob Hope and Cedric Adams team up for a "side-splitting" half-hour on a special CBS show, "Aquatennial Time" . . . which is in celebration of the great Minneapolis Aquatennial summer festival.

7:00-KNX—"The Phantom's speeches sure do score, but that's not what he's famous for." That is the latest clue given by "Sing It Again." Can you identify the Phantom?

7:30-KFI—It's "Grand Old Opry" time again and tonight's guest will be Elton Britt.

8:00-KHJ—"Life Begins at 80" and is still going strong for Frank W. Stokes, an artist who gained inspiration for his work from trips to the polar region. He is 92 years old.

10:30-KHJ—Soprano Virginia Parker and baritone Bruce Foote in tonight's "Chicago School of the Air."
