On the Record

Sinatra, Leonard Rejoin T. D.

By WILLIAM L. DOUDNA
 (State Journal Music Editor)

Remember when Frank Sinatra and Jack Leonard were Tommy Dorsey's star vocalists, and the boys in the T. D. band backed 'em up with hearty choruses? Victor's newest "Smart Set" album is a collection of such numbers. Sinatra and the chorus do "East of the Sun," and the rest of the sides have Leonard and the lads in "I'll See You in My Dreams," "Sweet Sue," "Yearning," "Blue Moon," and "How Am I to Know?"

Victor has signed Juanita Hall, who plays Bloody Mary in "South Pacific," and television's "Howdy Doody" to recording contracts.

Morton Gould, whose orchestral albums for Columbia are among that firm's top sellers, will write the music for the Theater Guild's musical version of "The Pursuit of Happiness." John Conte turned down a starring role in a dramatic show to have a featured part in this one.

Looking back over the summer again, we find these albums and singles to recommend: "Seythian Suite," Prokofiev, recorded by the Philadelphia orchestra under Eugene Ormandy (Columbia)... Barbaric music, played with vigor.

"Five Poems of Baudelaire," Debussy, recorded by Jennie Tourel, with Erich Itor Kahn at the piano (Columbia)... The music matches the poems, and the voice matches the music.

"Serenade No. 10, in B Flat," Mozart, recorded by members of the Boston Symphony under Dr. Serge Koussevitzky (Victor)... I think we listed this before, but it's so good I wouldn't want you to miss it.

"Concerto No. 1, in B Flat, for Bassoon and Orchestra," Mozart, recorded by Leonard Shal- row and the NBC Symphony under Arturo Tos- canini... A contrasting work, performed with skill and clarity.

"Folk Songs of the British Isles," recorded by Robert Merrill (Victor)... Seldom-heard music which Merrill has revived on the air and in his concerts.

"Symphony in B Flat Major," Chausson, recorded by the Minneapolis Symphony under Dimitri Mitropoulos (Columbia)... This will re- mind you of Franck's D- Minor symphony; the com- poser was a Franck pupil. And Mitropoulos handles it beautifully.

"Don Cossack Concert," recorded by the Don Cossack chorus under Serge Jaroff (Columbia)... Including "Song of the Indian Guest," better known as "Song of India," as well as liturgical and folk music.
