

DIAL-LITES

TODAY

11:00-KFI—Henry Fonda will have the principal role of a U. N. liaison man in "Sometime Before Morning," a full-hour drama presented today as second in the series of six weekly broadcasts in co-operation with United Nations radio.

2:30-KECA—The first biblical drama scheduled for presentation on "The Greatest Story Ever Told" is "Love Your Enemies," the story of a boy bonded in slavery to a man who expects him to steal for his keep.

4:30-KFI—Phil Harris and Alice Faye return to the air with their happy-go-lucky cast today.

5:30-KFI—Screen and stage star Rex Harrison will play the lead in the suspenseful courtroom drama, "Libel" on "Theatre Guild on the Air."

6:00-KNX—While figuring out a new way to hold her boy friend, Dexter, Corliss Archer becomes involved in a fortune-telling scheme during "Meet Corliss Archer."

8:00-KHJ—Earl Wilson, famous New York columnist, will try his hand at radio's version of the "Animal, Vegetable or Mineral" game, "Twenty Questions."