

DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT

5:30-KECA—When a singing cowboy visits an elite hotel to purchase a $25,000 gem and is robbed of the money, "Sky King" saves the reputation of the hotel.

6:00-KFI—The fall radio season is now officially launched, for tonight we have with us none other than Bob Hope.

7:30—"People Are Funny," with Art Linkletter as emcee, will return to the airways tonight.

8:00-KHJ—A test of the relative merits of fists versus foils is demonstrated by the "Count of Monte Cristo" tonight.

8:30-KFI—Some individual from New York City will see his life pass in review when "This Is Your Life" once more reviews the life of an unsuspecting person. On Sept. 28 this program will switch to Wednesday at 6 p. m.
