

Today's Radio Highlights

Music

6:30 p. m.—Club 15 (WBBM): "Ain't She Sweet," "I Can Dream, Can't I," "Lucky Old Sun."

7 p. m.—Gordon MacRae (WISC): salutes Rodgers and Hammerstein.

7:30 p. m.—Concert Hour (WIBA): Helen Traubel and Howard Barlow's orchestra; "The Way You Look Tonight," "Bali Hai," "The Sweetest Story Ever Told."

"Thou Hall of Song," "Andalucia," "Do You Recall?," "Moon Love."

8 p. m.—Great Artists (WIBA): Lilly Pons and Donald Voorhees' orchestra; "Je Suis Titania," "Chanson de Marie Antoinette,"

"Son Vergin Vezzosa," army-navy football medley, "Carmen" intermezzo, Sarasate's "Introduction and Tarantella."

8:30 p. m.—Band of America (WIBA): moves from Friday night spot; "National Emblem," "The Three Kings," "American Salute," "The Kilties," "Light Cavalry" Overture, "Semper Fidelis."

10:15 p. m.—Sammy Kaye (WISC): "Toot, Toot, Tootsie," "September Song," "24 Hours of Sunshine," "Paper Moon."

10:30 p. m.—Concert Master (WIBA): Budapest String quartet plays minuet from Beethoven's "Quartet No. 5" and first movement of Debussy's "Quartet in G Minor."

Farm Programs

11:30 a. m.—Farm Roundup (WIBA): Bill Clark on commercial fertilizer; Bill Kimball on Dane county 4-H clubs.

12:30 p. m.—Farm Program (WHA): "Grassland Farming News," F. V. Burcalow, H. L. Ahlgren; "Corn News," Norman Neal.

Miscellaneous

10 a. m.—Homemakers (WHA):

PONS

"When You Appoint a Committee," Josephine Pollock; "Styles That Are Stabilized," Helen Pearson.

11:45 a. m.—Sacred Heart (WFOV): "Hospitals—Canadian Wilderness."

1:30 p. m.—Ladies Fair (WKOW): new audience participation show with Tom Moore.

2 p. m.—Beginning Spanish (WHA): new series.

4:45 p. m.—Holland Today and Tomorrow (WFOV): "Symbol for the Future."

* * *

Drama

7 p. m.—Inner Sanctum (WBBM): clockmaker tangles with ill-fated time machine.

8 p. m.—Radio Theater (WBBM): Bing Crosby and Ann Blyth in "The Emperor Waltz."

8:30 p. m.—Secret Missions (WKOW): Allied agent vanishes in northern Germany.

9 p. m.—National Guard (WISC): new series; Lloyd Nolan in "Alaskan Adventure."

CROSBY

* * *

Discussion

10 a. m.—Dr. Preston Bradley (WGN): begins 26th year in radio.

* * *

Variety

9:15 a. m.—Arthur Godfrey (WBBM): returns to the air.

3:30 p. m.—Hoc-Down Party (WKOW): new series.

* * *

Baseball

2:45 p. m.—Cubs vs. Cincinnati (WIND).

* * *

For Children

5 p. m.—Playtime (WIBA): "The Rabbit Who Wanted Red Wings."

5:30 p. m.—Tom Mix Straight Shooters (WKOW): return to the air.

Hollywood

By Edith Gwynn

They're trying to get Arthur Kennedy currently in the cast of "Death of a Salesman" on Bway., to tear himself loose from the Main Stem and come here to play the role of the "gentleman caller" in the film version of "The Glass Menagerie." This is a much sought-after part and whoever plays it will be in the fine company of Jane Wyman and Gertie Lawrence. BUT Kennedy is a guy who struggled a long time to make his mark in Hollywood and all he got was mediocre roles. We'll be surprised if this fine actor doesn't give movies the brush and remain on the stage until he's just derved good and ready to head west again.

Betsy Drake, Carey Grant's heart-throb, will be Dennis Morgan's co-star in "Pretty Baby."

It's a fact: Dean Martin, who sings us into swoons, is honeymooning at present in a house on a street called Warbler Way! (It's a little street at the start of Beverly Hills.)

Alan Jones is really cleaning up in his tour of the British Isles—and in more ways than one. Alan wrote a song called "Bless You, My Sweet" for the Anna Neagle-Michael Wilding picture, "They Met at Midnight." He sang it in America for many months but it never caught on. He tried again at the London Palladium and it went over big. Now he's recording it in England as well as making a deal to wax it when he gets back here next month.

The sweaters that vocalist Annette Warren wears on her TV shows have a lot of characters yelling "23 Skidoo and oh, you kid!" So wot happens? She's getting a screen test on the basis of her singing!

Cora Sue Collins, one-time child star, is honeymooning in Hollywood with her new groom, Jim Mc Kaye. She was formerly wed to Hal Daniels.

People are giggling over the fact that so many of the comics that Milton Berle has pilfered material from are in the just-finished film, "Always Leave 'em Laughing" with him. Henny Youngman, Bert Lahr, to name a couple. And some wonder if Berle was paying off his conscience by having them in the picture.

Both Eleanor Parker and Patricia Neal plus Ruth Roman, are practically set to be in "Rock Bottom," which Milton Sperling is producing independently for release through Warners. Sperling is up to his ears in negotiations for the triple loan-out right now.

Editors throughout the U. S. will be up to their ears in "cheeseecake" (leg-art. to you!) as soon as "The Petty Girl," starring Joan Caulfield, is finished. Because George Petty, the artist-creator of the curvaceous "Petty girl," will then take off on a nationwide tour of the big cities, along with 25 hand-picked cuties—as an exploitation stunt for the movie.

Before he left town, Irving Berlin was coaxing Gertrude Niesen to go on tour with the show, "Annie Get Your Gun"—in the Ethel Merman role—natch! Gertrude had big success starring in "Annie" in Los Angeles a few weeks ago. But she also has a beautiful new hill-top house in Hollywood and at this point is in no mood to leave it. Besides, she's but loaded with money—or didn't you know?

Andy Russell's wife, Della, has recovered from the illness that had her bedded for weeks and weeks. And the two of them open their act at the newly-redecorated Mocambo Sept. 29.

MONDAY 8:30 P. M. NBC STATIONS

the Lions will be his 140th in the Madison area on the subject.