TONIGHT

6:00-KFI—A famous band conductor will be the subject of Ralph Edwards' "This Is Your Life."

6:30-KNX—With "Bing Crosby" in the title role, Shakespeare's immortal classic "Hamlet" will take a dreadful beating in the operetta version concocted by Abe Burrows.

7:00-KNX—It is Gracie's contention that marriage licenses should be renewed yearly and the husband should recourt his wife as he did on their first date. . . the whole scheme proves a bit noxious to George but Bill Goodwin and Uncle John enter into the scheme with great enthusiasm.

7:30-KECA—Gene Raymond has been chosen to portray the lead role of the popular mystery drama "The Amazing Mr. Malone." Tonight's story is about a gangster who had one ambition . . . to be public enemy No. 1.

8:00-KECA—A beautiful adventure; and a strange death in the night are the chief ingredients in "The Case of the Eloquent Corpse" the latest chapter in the "Adventure of Sherlock Holmes."
