

● DIAL-LITES

TONIGHT—

6:00-KFI—In the "Life of Riley" there is always a crisis and the new season starts out with a bang when Chester Riley tries to break up a romance of his daughter, Babs.

6:30-KFI—Jimmy Durante and his gang are back . . . Don Ameche takes a firm stand about driving the comedian around and insists that Jimmy obtain a driver's license. . . . Watch out pedestrians"

8:30-KECA—"This Is Your FBI," which in co-operation with your local police force guarantee that every crime will be prosecuted. Tonight's story deals with the kidnaping of a prominent man.

8:30-KHJ—This is a special broadcast on behalf of the United Jewish Appeal. Paul Lukas will be starred in the dramatization of the story, "The Man Who Went Back."

9:00-KNX—Lucille Ball as Liz Cooper, decides to get husband George a raise during the "My Favorite Husband" show. . . . To get quick results she sells apples in front of the bank where he is employed . . . the plan backfires and the fun starts.

TOMORROW—FOOTBALL:

10:15-KECA—Army-Michigan.

12:15-KFI—Game not announced.

2:15-KHJ-KVOE—

Stanford-U. C. L. A.

2:15-KNX—U. S. C.-Ohio State.

BASEBALL:

9:45-KHJ-KVOE—World Series.

4:30-KFI—"Period Suite," a new composition of Abram Chasin will have its premiere performance on the NBC Symphony program today. Milton Katmis will also conduct Bizet's "Symphony in C," and "Two Roumanian Dances," by Bartok.