

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

6:30—KFI—It is not unusual to get an extension phone, but when Jimmy Durante and Vera Vague attempt same there are some fantastic results.

8:30—KNX—When "Rosalie" has to write a theme, titled "My Family," the whole family turns to with many kindnesses . . . This is the "Goldbergs," and said theme is to be read at the P.-T. A. meeting.

7:00—KHJ—News men will interview Hector McNeil, leader of the British U. N. delegation on "Meet the Press" tonight.

9:00—KNX—When "Liz" expresses a wish for a television set because they make the house look so smart on the outside . . . George says, no! But when he relents, and the maid orders one, too, along with the boss . . . the house is well filled with television sets on "My Favorite Husband."

9:00—KECA—A typical American family, the Nelsons, resume their domestic comedy. "The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet" . . . complete with the children and Thornberry, the neighbor, they will carry on in their uproarious style.
