

The following programs are compiled from reports provided by the broadcaster.

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

6:30—KNX—When friend and schoolmate Horowitz is threatened with eviction, "Luigi" and the rest of the class pitch in and help. Their zany efforts make a very amusing recital.

8:00—KHJ-KVOE—"The Baron Tagori" boasts that he is about to divest "The Count of Monte Cristo" of his entire fortune; and proceeds to carry out his threat until the Count finds the man behind the scenes.

8:30—KFI—Rosalind Russell will play the part of a crusading newspaperwoman in "Remember Anna Zenger" on "Cavalcade of America."

9:00—KFI—Steve and Lorelei investigate an unsuccessful suicide attempt and uncover an operation in the black marketing of babies. The story is "Murder by Adoption" aired on "Big Town" tonight.

11:00—KHJ—This marks the first major address of the visiting Prime Minister Jawaharlal Pandit Nehru of India. He will be introduced by Dwight D. Eisenhower, president of Columbia University, from which he will receive an honorary degree of doctor of laws.