

DIAL LITES—TONIGHT

6:30—KHJ—Mutual Don Lee will carry the famous Hawaiian summoning ceremonies. You will hear the chief of all the islands summon all listeners to the festival which begins eight days later and marks the start of Hawaii's "Aloha Week."

6:30—KFI—Dennis Day and his girl friend Mildred get involved in an attempted marriage reconciliation through the medium of a high school musical.

7:00—KECA—If you are an ardent admirer of Al Jolson, you'd better catch the broadcast of "Hollywood Byline." Here is a show where the top Hollywood writers throw questions at the stars and then cross-examine them when they give their answers.

9:00—KFI—Jeff Clark, the 25-year-old baritone, from the Henry Morgan show, will be featured with Eileen Wilson on NBC's "Your Hit Parade." The program will feature a special tribute to the late Mark Warnow, who died in New York Monday afternoon.

9:00—KNX—Fletcher Bowron, mayor of Los Angeles, will be the narrator when CBS turns loose its thriller "Gangbusters." The show is entitled "The Case of the Elusive Leader."