

DIAL LITES—TONIGHT

12:00—KNX—To commemorate the 50th anniversary of the death of Johann Strauss, Leopold Stokowski conducts the Philharmonic in two of the Viennese Waltz King's most popular pieces, "Tales From the Vienna Woods" and "The Beautiful Blue Danube."

1:00—KHJ—Spook-buster Roger Elliot will expose the superstitions believed by the natives of Haiti in a special "House of Mystery" broadcast celebrating the bi-centennial founding of Port-au-Prince.

2:30—KECA—"The True Treasure" is the Biblical drama which examines the true values of earthly and spiritual possessions. This is heard on the "Greatest Story Ever Told" program and is based on the quotation from St. Matthew . . . "Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven."

3:00—KNX—Loretta Young makes her debut on "The Family Hour of Stars" when she plays the title role of Maxwell Anderson's "Mary of Scotland."

5:00—KFI—Tonight "Sam Spade" finds himself in complete possession of the facts of a case . . . his problem is to keep the identity of the murderer from the boy's mother.

5:00—KNX—With an advanced peek at the script of the Bergen and McCarthy show . . . here is a prediction . . . Charlie is in the eighth grade to stay. Permanently!!

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 23