

The following programs are complete from 10:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m.

DIAL LITES—TONIGHT

7:30—KFI—Ethel Merman, singing comedienne, will return to the air at this new time tonight. She will sing three songs for which she has won fame, "Fascinatin' Rhythm," "Anything Goes," and "Toot, Toot, Tootsie, Goodbye."

7:30—KECA—This is a new type of quiz show which features the fact that contestants do not have to know all the answers. Each contestant picks another one from the audience, making a chain, then they divide the loot at the end of the program.

8:30—KNX—A lady song stylist, a harmonica soloist, a bass baritone, and a mixed vocal quartet will compete for top honors on "Talent Scouts" tonight.

9:00—KFI—"The Telephone Hour." Jascha Heifetz to salute the fourth anniversary of the U. N. The one-world theme will be carried out in a number that combines the talents of two artists, it is Heifetz' own arrangement of Leopold Godowsky's "Alt Wein."

10:45—KHJ—The Federation of Business and Professional Women celebrate United Nations Week with speeches by Diwata Aldaba, who has been given a scholarship by the club, and Lilly Hawkinson, U. N. advisor to the federation.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 24