

RADIO PROGRAMS AND PERSONALITIES

POPULAR MUSIC, THE KIND THAT IS DESERVEDLY liked by everybody, is now being offered at its best on "Club 15" over KTSA at 6:30 p.m. every day, Monday through Friday. On Tuesday, Dick Haymes, Evelyn Knight and the Modernaires will open with "Exactly Like You." Miss Knight's solo is "Be Goody Good to Me." The Modernaires feature "Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer." Haymes and the Modernaires close with "The Meadows of Heaven." KTSA—6:30 P.M.

JACK SMITH, DINAH SHORE AND MARGARET Whiting are adding to their earlier laurels with their teamwork on their CBS show at 6:15 p.m., Mondays through Fridays. On Tuesday, Dinah and Jack open with a duet on "I'm Too Busy to Say Hello." Miss Shore solos "You're Breaking My Heart" and "Stormy Weather," and Smith does "Georgia on My Mind." KTSA—6:15 P.M.

BY POPULAR DEMAND "I LOVE A MYSTERY" HAS returned to the air on Mutual Monday through Friday. After being off the airways for nearly five years, Carlton E. Morse, originator and author of "I Love a Mystery," states he has been continually receiving letters from former listeners, inquiring as to when the program would be heard again. The day-to-day adventures of Jack Pacard, Doc Long and Reggie York, soldiers of fortune, provide good listening for all mystery fans. KMAC—6:45 P.M.

Wendy

WENDY WARREN AND THE NEWS IS THE NEW AND different drama of a woman's life—set against the background of today's news. "Wendy Warren and the News" brings the latest world news, a summary of news of special interest to women—plus the story of the life of Newspaper-Woman Wendy Warren. Every day, Monday through Friday. KTSA—11 A.M.

"ESCAPE," THE CBS PROGRAM OF HIGH adventure, broadcast on Saturdays through the month of October over CBS, will be heard on Tuesdays at 8 p.m., beginning Nov. 1. KTSA—8 P.M.

THE BODY OF A FAMOUS THEATRICAL PRODUCER, found in a trunk by customs inspectors on the pier shortly after a European liner docked, claims the attention of Inspector Hearthstone of the Death Squad in "The Case of the Man Who Came Home Murdered" on CBS' "Mystery Theater," Tuesday. Alfred Shirley is heard as Inspector Hearthstone. "Mystery Theater" is produced by Frank and Anne Hummert. KTSA—7 P.M.

SEN. OWEN BREWSTER (R-ME.) AND SEN. HUBERT H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) will take respective affirmative and negative stands on the question, "Are We Dependng Too Much on Government For Our General Welfare," on ABC's America's Town Meeting broadcast, Tuesday. The Maine Republican and the Democrat from Minnesota will be the only speakers on the program aside from weekly Moderator George V. Denny, Jr. Brewster is a member of the Senate finance and interstate and foreign commerce committee, and Humphrey, a member of the Senate labor and public welfare committee and executive departments expenditures committee. KABC—7:30 P.M.

NURSE NORA DRAKE BEGINS TO REALIZE HOW much the charming refugee, Suzanne Turrie, loves Nora's fiance, Charles Dobbs, on "This Is Nora Drake." Suzanne still believes that Dobbs is in love with her and does not understand that his declaration of affection was made only to save her life. Academy Award Actress Joan Loring plays Suzanne Turrie. Joan Tompkins stars as Nora Drake and Grant Richards takes the part of Charles Dobbs. KTSA—1:30 P.M.

Tompkins

THERE'LL BE FEWER EMPTY STOCK ings this Christmas, thanks to a nation-wide "Hilltop House Toy Turnout," in which almost 7,000 local Lions Clubs throughout the United States will co-operate in collecting playthings for Yuletide distribution to orphan-ages and underprivileges children. The plan is revealed on CBS' "Hilltop House" in dramatic episodes beginning Tuesday and continuing every day, Monday through Friday. KTSA—2:15 P.M.

A SAN FRANCISCO HOUSEWIFE, MRS. MARGARET Magnusson, won a fortune in prizes when she answered "A square peg in a round hole" and solved the "Secret Saying" Tuesday night over KTSA on De Soto-Plymouth's "Hit the Jackpot." Phoned by the show's Emcee Bill Cullen, Mrs. Magnusson immediately gave the correct answer to the "Secret Saying." When Cullen told her that she had won a mammoth jackpot of prizes, topped by a brand-new De Soto four-door custom sedan, she excitedly exclaimed: "I'm just dying." Her husband, a shipping clerk at the San Francisco waterfront, said in amazement: "I can't believe it." KTSA—9 P.M.