

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

5:30—KFI—"Baby Snooks" is right back in the groove with her "childish" tricks . . . as usual her tirades are directed against the long-suffering "Daddy."

6:30—KNX—"Luigi" finds himself in plenty of trouble when the voting booths are placed in his store on election day . . . his friend, Pasquale, doesn't help matters any when he advises Luigi to do plenty of electioneering, in fact they both land in jail.

7:00—KECA—The exciting adventure related in the "Case of the Sea Snake" is the "Counterspy" episode, in which he smashes a ring of clever diamond smugglers.

8:00—KECA—The story of "Our Private Enemy" . . . the aggressor forces in the recent joint Army-Navy-Marine "invasion" of Hawaii, which has been named "Operation Miki," will be presented on "Time for Defense" tonight.

8:00—KHJ—The "Count of Monte Cristo" gets on the trail of an international conspirator who shows a marked aversion to silver, although he is very fond of all other metals.
