

DIAL LITES—TODAY

12:00—KNX—The brilliant young concert artist William Kapell is the soloist in Manuel de Falla's symphonic impression for piano and orchestra, "Nights in the Gardens of Spain." Also included in the program under the baton of Leopold Stokowski is Tschaiakowsky's "Symphony in E Minor" and "Sensemaya" a recent Mexican composition.

2:30—KECA—God answers our prayers . . . but in the way he deems best . . . is the lesson to be derived from "To Them That Ask," the biblical drama taken from quotations from Matthew on "The Greatest Story Ever Told."

4:00—KNX—The Colmans, Ronnie and Benita, that is, subject themselves to the indignities of the "Jack Benny Program" for the 16th time today.

4:00—KHJ—Parker Fennelly, portrayer of New England roles, will be starred in "Mr. Feathers" a new dramatic series in which he plays the part of an "old school" apothecary . . . druggist to you.

5:30—KFI—Helen Hayes and David Niven will be the stars of "Still Life" when this Noel Coward play is presented by "Theater Guild of the Air." This is Miss Hayes' first radio appearance since the recent tragic death of her daughter.

7:30—KNX—"The Whistler" tells the exciting drama of "An Incident at Pebble Beach," to which a village constable and a girl with enough evidence to hang a man make up the cast.
