"WISH TO KILL," A TANTALIZING little tantrum about a human wreck with a murderous wish to change his glamorous wife into a glamorous corpse, is the "Inner Sanctum" mystery drama for Monday night. Karl Swenson stars as John. "Wish to Kill" was written by John Roeburt. John is a weak-kneed old moneybags with a glamorous young wife, Celeste, who loves him, not for his wisdom, but his financial winnings. In spite of himself, John keeps wishing his wife were dead. The only trouble is that he lacks the nerve to do the job himself. Finally he takes his wife for a nice, long ride on a dead-end street. Although Celeste is a dead shot, she can't shoot her way out of this and ends up even deader. When John discovers that his favorite nightmare has come true, just as he wished it, his sanity gets a little slippery—in fact so slippery that he can hardly hold on to it. Hi Brown produces and directs "Inner Sanctum." Paul McGrath is heard as Your Host at the Squeaking Door. KTSA—7 P.M.
