NEW YORK, NOV. 17.—TELEVISION FOR the wedding of Vice-President Alben W. Barkley and Mrs. Carleton S. Hadley at St. Louis on Friday will make the scene available to large sections of the Midwest and the East via network relay. In addition, special radio broadcasts are being arranged.

THE CRIME THAT IS ALMOST AS OLD as time itself—extortion—serves as the basis of the dramatized story about a recent widow and a group of extortionists on the Friday, November 18, broadcast of This Is Your FBI over the ABC network at 7:30 p.m. Led by Special Agent Jim Taylor the FBI is called into a case involving a certain widow who has just paid several thousand dollars for the return of Crain letters which, if ever published, would blacken the name of her deceased mate. As usual the FBI, in conjunction with the local police authorities, are able to round up the forger of the letters and eventually the whole extortion gang. KABC—7:30 p.m.

DOES WEALTH BRING HAPPINESS? OUR GAL SUNDAY says no! Listen to the absorbing drama of a small-town orphan girl who marries England's richest and most handsome lord—and finds the cards stacked against her happiness. Hear OUR GAL SUNDAY every Monday through Friday on CBS. KTSA—11:45 a.m.

JUST BEFORE HE DIED, CHICK COLBY ENTRUSTS a secret to his ten-year-old brother. Bull Lamont is determined to find out the secret and both the young boy and Sergeant Preston almost lose their lives in the story of "The Brother's Promise," to be broadcast on Friday, Nov. 18, at 5 p.m., CST, over ABC. KABC—5 p.m.

THE "LADIES FAIR" PROGRAM IS DRAWING LARGE audiences to each of its broadcasts from Chicago—and bids fair to attract as many studio guests as Mutual's "Chicago Theatre Of The Air" feature, which each Saturday draws the largest studio audiences for Chicago-originated network broadcasts. "Ladies Fair" is broadcast over KMAC weekdays 1 to 1:30 p.m. KMAC—1 p.m.

LUCILLE BALL, AS "LIZ COOPER," IS worried about her maid's romance with the mailman, because he always takes her to a drive-in theater on a motorcycle, during the "My Favorite Husband" broadcast, Friday, November 18, at 7:30 p.m., over CBS. Liz finally solves the problem by turning over the house to the maid for a complete evening. But she doesn't tell her hubby "George," and the mix-up that follows finds the Coopers in jail. Lucille Ball is heard in the starring role, with Richard Denning as her "favorite husband." Ruth Perrott is the maid. Bob Lemond announces, and Wilbur Hatch's orchestra supplies the musical background. KTSA—7:30 p.m.
