FRANK FAY, OF "HARVEY" STAGE FAME, PAYS A return visit to KTSA-CBS' "Bing Crosby Show" to indulge his favorite pastime, dissecting song lyrics, Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. Fay will take up where he left off in his Oct. 19 visit with Der Bingle, in his comical assault on the logic of the lyrics of popular songs. Another returning guests is vocalist

Crosby

Peggy Lee, who joins Crosby in the music department. Crosby provides material for Fay's jibes, singing "Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer," "Everything I Have Is Yours" and "A Thousand Violins" from Bob Hope's picture "The Great Lover." Miss Lee's solo is "A Man Wrote a Song." She and Bing team up with the Rhythmaires in "Way Back Home." John Scott Trotter is music director for the "Bing Crosby Show." Ken Carpenter is announcer, Bill Morrow is producer-head writer and Murdo MacKenzie is co-producer. KTSA—8:30 P.M.

The wisdom and guidance of Dr. Jensen play an important role on KTSA-CBS'. This Is Nora Drake, at 1:30 p.m. will he be able to help Suzanne (Joan Lorrington)? KTSA—1:30 P.M.

KMAC—MUTUAL'S "MR. FEATHERS" WILL ABANDON his vegetarian leanings in a personal tribute to Thanksgiving Day when he will feature a special "Turkey Sandwich" at Mr. Cowdy's Pike City drug store during the airing of his program Wednesday at 8 p.m. Parker Fennelly portrays that title role in this new series of dramas. KMAC—8 P.M.

AFTER LISTENING TO THEIR WEDNESDAY NIGHT radio neighbor, Bing Crosby, Gracie Allen is convinced that hubby George Burns, "Sugar Throat," is a better singer than Bing, and the wheels of hilarity begin to spin, on KTSA-CBS' "Burns and Allen Show" Wednesday, at 9 p.m. Gracie thinks it unjust that such talent as George's should go to waste, so she arranges to have their program sponsor over for Thanksgiving dinner so George can sing for him. Announcer Bill Goodwin is featured in the "Burns and Allen Show." Music is under Harry Lubin's direction. William Burns is producer and Paul Henning is head writer. KTSA—9 P.M.

THE STORY OF A WOMAN WHO HAS been a barber for the past 20 years is the subject of Ralph Edwards' "This Is Your Life" broadcast over WOAI-NBC at 7 p.m. Wednesday. As usual, her appearance on the show will be a complete surprise to the subject. Guest speaker on the program will be Carlos Romulo, President of the United Nations General Assembly, who will speak in behalf of the "Marian, Polio, Hollywood" drive for funds for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. The drive was launched last week by Edwards in honor of his subject, Marian Goldwyn, mother of two children and a victim of the disease in 1948. WOAI—7 P.M.

JEAN HERSHOLT, AS KTSA-CBS' genial "DR. CHRISTIAN," helps to reconcile a newly married but estranged French-Canadian farmer and his young city-bred bride, in the prize-winning drama, "The Teakettle: She Sing," Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Written by Alice M. Lassen of Beverly Hills, Calif., "The Teakettle: She Sing" features Rosemary De Camp as nurse-secretary Judy Price. Dorothy McCann produces. KTSA—7:30 P.M.

JEREMY TAYLOR'S WAGON TRAIN IS A MONTH BEHIND schedule and winter is coming, but he still persuades those who have survived to keep going. The notorious outlaw Grafton has made other arrangements for this particular wagon train. "The Lone Ranger" hears of the ruthless plans and saves the "Pilgrim's Progress." KABC—6:30 P.M.

"MR. DISTRICT ATTORNEY" JOINS THE KINDERGARTEN class of the nice neighborhood children's school at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday to lead WOAI-NBC listeners and agents of the Treasury Department to the source of a marijuana ring operating in his county, and solves a pair of murders via the blackboard method to boot, in "The Case of Free Play." Jay Jostyn as "Mr. D.A.," Vicki Vola as his secretary, "Miss Miller," and Len Doyle as "Harrington" are co-starred on the broadcasts. WOAI—8:30 P.M.

WHEN 70-YEAR-OLD MILLIONAIRE PARTY-GIVER Amos Cartwell is strangled following the debut party of a young girl, KTSA-CBS' "Mr. Chameleon" investigates "The Marriage Proposal Murder Case," Wednesday at 7 p.m. Karl Swenson is heard as Chameleon. The program was originated and is produced by Frank and Anne Hummert. KTSA—7 P.M.
