

RADIO PROGRAMS AND PERSONALITIES

RICHARD HART, UNTIL RECENTLY FIRST FEATURED player in the Broadway production of "Goodbye, My Fancy," and Mary Sinclair, who has just returned from the American Club Theater in Paris where she starred in a series of Tennessee Williams' one-acters, take the lead roles in "Around the World in Brooklyn," on KTSA-CBS' "Grand Central Station" Saturday, 11:30 a.m. In supporting roles are Richard Newton, recently in the long Broadway run of "Edward My Son," and Jane Hoffman, who last appeared in "Two Blind Mice." Martin Horrell produces "Grand Central Station." Ira Ashley directs. KTSA—11:30 A.M.

VANESSA BROWN PLAYS A LEAD ROLE IN "NOW AND Forever," on KTSA-CBS' "Stars Over Hollywood" Saturday at 12 noon. Miss Brown is cast as a newspaper reporter assigned to track down a missing doctor. Robert Nye produces, Dave Young directs and Rex Koury conducts the music. KTSA—12 NOON.

RALPH EDWARDS AND HIS "TRUTH OR CONSEQUENCES" troupe will return to the scene of one of their earliest triumphs Saturday, when they play the Public Hall in Cleveland (WOAI-NBC, 7:30 p.m.) The first stage appearance made by Edwards was in Cleveland in 1941, when the whole "Truth or Consequences" gang appeared at the Palace on the same bill as The Merry Macs, Lorraine and Rodney, the Pitchmen, and Gloria Jean. WOAI—7:30 P.M.

NOBODY WORRIED AS PARACHUTISTS JUMPED FROM an ancient biplane at 3,500 feet twice a day, until five million bucks—and death—went along for the ride, with "The Birds on the Wing" on KTSA-CBS' "Adventures of Philip Marlowe" Saturday at 7:30 p.m. Gerald Mohr stars as Marlowe. Norman Macdonnell directs and produces. KTSA—7:30 P.M.

Autry

"THE PHANTOM SINGER IS A REAL Good Joe," and it will be worth $53,000 in prizes and cash to the "Sing It Again" listener who names him on Saturday at 9 p.m. over KTSA-CBS. Extra clues broadcast by Dan Seymour are: We're pretty sure you'd like to know our Phantom singer is a real good Joe. Just clippity-clop to the barber shop and you'll find the Phantom in the crop. His parents made a big to-do because he made goo-goo-goo and moo. Since Oct. 29, the Phantom has been singing, via recording, lyrics containing clues to his identity. KTSA—9 P.M.

INSTEAD OF DRIVING MRS. ANDERSON INTO AN early grave, Dennis Day drives her car into a tree, starting off a chain of comic circumstances on "A Day in the Life of Dennis Day" over WOAI-NBC Saturday at 8:30 p.m. During the musical portion of the program Dennis will sing three popular selections, accompanied by Charles (Bud) Dant and his orchestra. WOAI—8:30 P.M.

CBS' SINGING COWBOY STAR, GENE AUTRY, WILL broadcast a special dramatic program in tribute to the late Will Rogers, who inspired him to go into radio, during KTSA-CBS' "Gene Autry Show" at 7 p.m. Autry will sing "Be Honest With Me," "Last Mile Home" and "Jealous Heart." The Cass County Boys and the Pinafores render "Dear Hearts and Gentle People." The production number is based on "Empty Saddles." Carl Cotner conducts the music. KTSA—7 P.M.

THE LIFE OF A BOY HANGS ON DANNY CLOVER'S private investigation of the murder rap which has caused the boy's conviction, on KTSA-CBS' "Broadway's My Beat" Saturday at 8:30 p.m. Larry Thor stars as Clover. Elliott Lewis is the producer. KTSA—8:30 P.M.

A QUARTET OF TIMELY FARM TOPICS WILL BE reported on and discussed when KABC-ABS's "The American Farmer" program is presented Saturday. Dana Reynolds of the U.S. Department of Agriculture will open the broadcast with his weekly air editorial on "The Business Side of Farming" from Washington. A home economics story will be presented with Mary Colopy, assistant editor of the Information Service at Colorado A. and M. College, interviewing women on textiles. The National 4-H Club Congress opens in Chicago Sunday. As a salute to the movement, Joe Tonkin of the department of agriculture will interview two or three of the 4-H boys and girls on the program. The broadcast will culminate with a report aired directly from the Chicago Arena where the 50th anniversary of the International Livestock Show will be held. KABC—11:30 A.M.

Monroe

NINA FOCH AND WILLIAM PRINCE, WHO ROSE TO fame in the title roles of the Broadway comedy "John Loves Mary," meet for the first time since their 1947 success to co-star in an original radio drama on KTSA-CBS' "Theater of Today," Saturday at 11 p.m. Al Ward directs, and Ira Avery produces. Harold Levey composes and conducts the original music. KTSA—11 P.M.

FOLLOWING THE ARMY-NAVY FOOTBALL GAME, Vaughn Monroe and his orchestra feature Army and Navy marching songs, "On, Brave Old Army Team" and "Anchors Aweigh," on KTSA-CBS' "Camel Caravan with Vaughn Monroe" Saturday at 6:30 p.m. Toni Arden, popular vocalist, is guest of maestro Monroe and his troupe in a program of current top hits. KTSA—6:30 P.M.

RUDOLF FRIML'S COLORFUL OPERETTA OF 15th Century France, "Vagabond King," will be presented by KMAC-Mutual's "Chicago Theater Of The Air" for its broadcast Saturday at 9:10 p.m. Soprano Nancy Carr will be starred in the leading role of Lady Katherine for this performance, while baritone Thomas L. Thomas will be heard as Francois Villon, the swashbuckling poet and fortune-seeker who becomes King of France for one day. KMAC—9:10 P.M.

WITH WITNESSES' STORIES AT HOPELESS VARIANCE and with hardly a clue to start on, Birmingham, Ala., police launch a relentless and ultimately rewarding investigation of an apparently unmotivated murder, in "The Case of the Hue and Cry" on KTSA-CBS' "Gangbusters" Saturday at 8 p.m. Guest narrator will be C. Floyd Eddins, Chief of Police of Birmingham. "Gangbusters" is a Phillips H. Lord production. KTSA—8 P.M.

Lipton

JUDY GRAVES STUMPS FOR A "TO each his own" policy for the Graves family, on KTSA-CBS' "Junior Miss" show Saturday at 10:30 a.m. The "mind your own business" slogan proves to be unworkable with the Graves tribe. Barbara Whiting stars as Judy. Henry Garson writes and directs. Fran Van Hartesveldt produces. KTSA—10:30 A.M.

"JORINDA AND JORINGEL," THE STORY OF HOW A young lover breaks the spell of a cruel witch and frees his beloved, is told on "Let's Pretend," Saturday at 10:05 a.m. over KTSA-CBS. This delightful fantasy, adapted and directed by Nila Mack, stars Bill Lipton as Joringel, and Marilyn Erskine as his sweetheart Jorinda. KTSA—10:05 A.M.

PLEASE MR. SKELTON, EVEN!