

DIAL LITES—TODAY

12 Noon—KNX—Jacques Abram, distinguished American pianist, is soloist in the first American broadcast of Benjamin Britten's Piano Concerto No. 1. with the New York Philharmonic-Symphony, Leopold Stokowski conducting, on CBS today.

2:00 P. M.—KHJ—Too many mysterious highway fatalities causes Lamont Cranston to investigate "The Man With No Face" as "The Shadow" unfolds more mystery on this popular series this afternoon.

6:15 P. M.—KECA—Lovely Greer Garson will be Louella Parsons' guest tonight. Actress Greer Garson will talk via transatlantic telephone from England where she is engaged in picture assignments.

7:00 P. M.—KNX—Margaret Whiting and the Sons of the Pioneers will be guests on tonight's popular musical show, "The Contented Hour" over CBS.

7:30 P. M.—KECA—"The Amazing Mr. Malone" episode for tonight calls upon the amazing John J. Malone to solve a murder of a fellow attorney.

8:30 P. M.—NBC's "Standard Hour" originates this evening from Memorial Auditorium at Riverside, Calif. Howard Wells, pianist, and John Ford, basso, will be featured soloists with the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra under the direction of Alfred Wallenstein.