

RADIO PROGRAMS AND PERSONALITIES

SUBJECTS FOR DISCUSSION ON AMY FREEMAN LEE'S "Call Board" over KONO at 6:30 p.m. Monday will be exhibitors, other than the prize winners, in the 11th annual Texas exhibition of painting and sculpture, the Tuesday Musical Club's recital by Sylvia and Benno Rabinof, and the San Antonio Symphony concert, featuring Adolphe Menjou. KONO—6:30 P.M.

THE BOYS' CLUBS OF SAN ANTONIO WILL PRESENT a program through the courtesy of KTSA Monday. Titled "325 Boys' Clubs Is Not Enough," the program includes a transcription of Tex McCary and Jinx Falkenburg with David Armstrong, executive director of the Boys' Clubs of America. Information on the Boys' Clubs of San Antonio also will be giving. KTSA—5:15 P.M.

CONTRALTO ANDREA LEE, TENOR, BILL BLOXSOM harmonica soloist Harry Breyn and the "Whiteguards" male vocal quintet will vie for top honors on the "Arthur Godfrey's Talent Scouts" simulcast. Miss Lee, of Newark, N.J., is largely self-taught, having had only 12 singing lessons in all. Bloxsom studied at the American Theater Wing and under private teachers. As a Marine corporal during the war, he toured with the Fourth Division show, "Just for Fun," for 37 performances. KTSA—7:30 P.M.

Kreisler

FRITZ KREISLER, WORLD-FAMOUS violin virtuoso, will return as guest soloist on the "Telephone Hour." He will appear in the triple role of soloist, arranger and composer. His own composition will be the nostalgic "The Old Refrain." Donald Voorhees has selected two colorful compositions for the Bell Symphonic Orchestra. He will open the concert with the stirring "March of the Polovetzi" from Borodin's "Prince Igor." The second composition for the orchestra will be "Dance of the Comedians" from Smetana's opera "The Bartered Bride." WOAI—8 P.M.

EDWARD G. ROBINSON AND CLAIRE TREVOR WILL play their original roles, assisted by Edmond O'Brien, in a full-hour adaption of "Key Largo," exciting gangster drama set in Florida on CBS' "Lux Radio Theater". Robinson is cast as Johnny Recco, a deported racketeer who sneaks back to the United States from Cuba and seizes a run-down hotel at Key Largo to engineer a counterfeit scheme. With him is his girl friend, Gaye, a role which won Miss Trevor an Academy Award. A distinguished ex-Army major, played by O'Brien, drops in to visit the captive proprietors, whose son was killed in the war. The former officer, at first apathetic, is galvanized into action when his character is put to the test. KTSA—8 P.M.

A PRETTY GIRL CAN ALSO BE AN INTELLIGENT girl, it becomes evident in "Aunt Jenny's" dramatized story today. "Aunt Jenny" has become a daily listening habit with millions of American women who enjoy her interesting stories every Monday through Friday. KTSA—11:15 A.M.

STEVE MacLEAN PUTS A NEW SLANT ON THE OLD question of the relativity of time and space—he doesn't know whether it happened yesterday, today, or will happen tomorrow, but he's convinced it's real—in "Illusion of Murder," the frightful foray into mystery on "Inner Sanctum." Mason Adams stars as Steve. The script is by John Roeburt. Steve is stumped with a few extra hours and days left over; hours and days that won't fit into the calendar. He might be able to forget about them, but in those days and hours he sees evidence of murder, and he knows who did it. His big trouble is that he can't tell when. He doesn't know if he somehow got a sneak preview of the future, or if part of the past skipped the track of time. Hi Browns produces and directs "Inner Sanctum." Paul McGrath is Your Host, and the music is by Lew White. KTSA—7 p.m.

THE LONE RANGER AND Tonto ride into almost certain death as they follow the trail of the Tennessee Kid. The Kid, who looks innocent, and his ruthless gang are out to kill the masked man and his Indian companion and almost succeed in the story of "The Tennessee Kid." KABC—6:30 p.m.

"BEULAH'S" WOMEN'S club and boy friend Bill's lodge both plan pre-holiday fund-raising dances, but both are scheduled for the same night and neither group is willing to change dates, as CBS' "Beulah" show begins another week of laughs. Hattie McDaniel stars as Beulah and Ernest Whitman is Bill. Tom McKnight produces. KTSA—6 p.m.

AFTER THEIR QUARREL, Nora Drake receives a frantic phone call from lawyer Charles Dobbs, her fiance, on "This is Nora Drake," Monday through Friday this week. Distracted because she feels that Charles has deceived her, Suzanne Turrie warns Nora Drake that Charles may do the same to her. Joan Tompkins stars as Nora Drake and Academy Award Actress Joan Loring portrays Suzanne Turrie. The role of Charles Dobbs is played by Grant Richards. KTSA—1:30 p.m.
