

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

7:00—KFI—Steve Wilson and Lorelei tackle a pair of thugs who engage a store-owner in a "Shakedown for Death." The only witness to the crime is the man's small daughter who has been kidnaped . . . this is the Big Town thriller for tonight.

8:00—KHJ—A wooden dummy turns out to be the culprit when valuable jewels vanish from wealthy homes, as the Count of Monte Cristo solves the "Zagastro Affair."

8:30—KECA—Government, labor and business will be represented on America's Town Meeting to discuss the question "Is Profit-sharing the Answer to Labor-Management Disputes?" The affirmative speakers are W. Stuart Symington and Col. Cass Hough. Speaking for the negative will be Lemual Boulware of General Electric and Joseph D. Keenan of the Labor League for Political Education.

8:30—KNX—Out for a refreshing swim in a pool Mr. and Mrs. North plunge into a strange mystery when a man dives in and neglects to come up.

8:30—KFI—Henry Fonda stars in the Cavalcade of America presentation of "Spindletop" the story of an Australian who became a U. S. citizen and a successful mining engineer.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 29