

RADIO PROGRAMS AND PERSONALITIES

THE FULL CAST OF KTSA-CBS' "CLUB 15" WILL assemble at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday to introduce numbers from their new "Club 15" record album. Headman Dick Haymes and the Andrews Sisters sing "Wunderbar." Haymes offers "You'd be So Nice to Come Home To." Evelyn Knight joins him in "I'm in Love, I'm in Love." The Andrews Sisters sing "Ridin' the Range for Republic" and the Modernaires feature "New Asmolian Marching Society." Evelyn Knight's solo is "I Came Here to Be Went With." Haymes and Patty Andrews sing "Why Woncha" and the sisters harmonize "Adieu" with the headman of "Club 15." The orchestra is under Jerry Gray's direction. KTSA-8:30 P.M.

Knight

MONEY TROUBLES AND THEIR COMING baby are wrecking the marriage of Walter and Harriet Dahلمان. This intriguing story is dramatized on the Aunt Jenny show Tuesday at 11:15 a.m. KTSA-11:15 A.M.

FIBBER DECIDES TO GIVE HIS YULETIDE GREETINGS a more personal touch, and as usual there is more work for Molly on WOAI-NBC's "Fibber McGee and Molly" program Tuesday at 8:30 p.m. Fibber leaves the living room of 79 Wistful Vista cluttered with pastepot, papers, ribbons and scissors as he attempts to make his own Christmas wrappings and cards. WOAI-8:30 P.M.

LUIGI'S TEMPER COMES TO A BOIL AS HE GOES TO the post office to send a glass coffee maker to his mother in Italy and gets entangled in red tape, during KTSA-CBS' "Life With Luigi," starring J. Carrol Naish, Tuesday at 8 p.m. The supporting cast includes Alan Reed, Mary Shipp, Jody Gilbert, Hans Conried, Ken Peters and Joe Forte. Mac Benoff directs. KTSA-8 P.M.

WHEN A YOUNG WOMAN WHOSE MEMORY OF THE past is obscured by amnesia is stabbed to death on the eve of her wedding, Inspector Hearthstone is called in to solve "The Adopted Daughter Murder Case" on KTSA-CBS' "Mystery Theatre" Tuesday, at 7 p.m. Alfred Shirley plays Hearthstone. Frank and Anne Hummert produce the series. KTSA-7 P.M.

GOVERNMENT AND BUSINESS EXPERTS ON THE FAR Eastern situation will debate the question. "Should We Recognize the Chinese Communist Government?" on America's Town Meeting broadcast. Arguing for recognition will be Dr. John K. Fairbank, author, professor and special assistant to the American ambassador in China; and George C. Cobean, businessman with interests in the Far East. Negative speakers will be Sen. Styles Bridges (R., N.H.) and Admiral Charles M. Cooke, Jr. (U.S.N., Ret.), in command of Chinese Military forces, 1946-48. KABC-7:30 P.M.

Frost

WHEN GERALD NORTH LOOKS AT THE price tag of a mink coat admired by his wife and murmurs "It's murder!", there's more truth in his statement than he realizes, in the KTSA-CBS' "Mr. and Mrs. North" drama Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. Joseph Curtin and Alice Frost star as the Norths. John Loveton produces and directs, and Charles Paul composes and conducts the music. KTSA-7:30 P.M.