

RADIO PROGRAMS AND PERSONALITIES

DIMITRI MITROPOULOS, DISTINGUISHED GREEK CONDUCTOR, TAKES OVER THE podium of the New York Philharmonic-Symphony in his first broadcast of the season, heard over KTSA 2:00-3:30 p.m. (FM) and 10:30 p.m. to 12:00 midt. (AM). Mr. Mitropoulos will be heard as conductor and piano soloist, playing and directing the first American broadcast of Ernst Krenek's Concerto No. 3 for Piano and Orchestra. He also will direct the orchestra in Rabaud's symphonic poem "La Procession Nocturne" and in Beethoven's Symphony No. 3 in E Flat Major, Opus 55 ("Eroica"). During the intermission, Mr. Mitropoulos, as guest of James Fassett in the "Green Room at Carnegie Hall" feature, will describe his first experience as pianist-conductor, when he pinch-hit at the last moment for pianist Egon Petri, in his own conducting debut with the Berlin Philharmonic in 1930. He will discuss certain modern concert which can properly be played in this dual capacity. KTSA—2:00-3:30 P.M. (FM); 10:30-12:00 P.M. (AM).

JACK SMITH, STAR OF CBS' "JACK SMITH-DINAH SHORE-MARGaret Whiting Show," and Dorothy Shay, the Park Avenue hillbilly, are singing guests of conductor Ted Dale on "Carnation Contented Hour" Sunday. KTSA—9 P.M.

WITH MASON GROSS AS CHAIRMAN AND IRWIN EDMAN AND LLOYD MORRIS AS his guests, CBS' "Invitation to Learning" airs an informal discussion of "Creative Evolution" by the French philosopher Henri Bergson, on Sunday, heard over KTSA. Mr. Gross is provost of Rutgers University. Mr. Edman is professor of philosophy at Columbia University and author of "Philosopher's Holiday" and other works. Mr. Morris is a critic, lecturer and author of the recently published "Not So Long Ago" and other books. KTSA—11:30 A.M.

LORETTA YOUNG PLAYS THE VICTIM OF A WISH FOR LIFE-LONG youth and beauty, in "Mrs. Moonlight," adapted by Jean Holloway from the Benn W. Levy Broadway hit of 1930, on "Family Hour of Stars" Sunday over KTSA. As the years pass she is painfully embarrassed by the contrast between her unchanging appearance and that of her aging friends. Miss Young is a member of the repertory company of "Family Hour of Stars."

HOAGY CARMICHAEL, COMPOSER-PIANIST-RADIO AND FILM STAR, plays a night club performer, as guest on "Edgar Bergen-Charlie McCarthy Show" Sunday over KTSA. Charlie, taking a scenic bus ride in San Francisco, winds up in a cabaret in the city's famous Chinatown, in a merry collision with the writer of "Stardust." Carmichael does his noted rendition of Hong Kong Blues." With Bergen and McCarthy will be the regulars, Mortimer Snerd, Ray Noble, who also conducts the music. KTSA—7 P.M.

ON THE 32nd ANNIVERSARY OF THE FOUNDING OF BOYS' TOWN, Neb., tribute will be paid to its late beloved founder, Father Flanagan, in a special half-hour broadcast titled "Boys' Town Choir." Two friends and admirers of Father Flanagan—his successor at Boys' Town, Monsignor Nicholas H. Wegner, and F. Stanley Beveridge, will recall for listeners milestones in the history and growth of Boys' Town. Under the direction of Norbert Letter, the 63 voice Boys' Town Choir will do honor to Father Flanagan, singing his favorite composition, "Panis Angelicus." KABC—4 P.M.

CORLISS ARCHER AND HER TEEN-AGE BOYFRIEND, DEXTER Franklin, return from a whirl of Big City life during the Sunday episode of "Meet Corliss Archer" over KTSA. Corliss and Dexter accompanied Corliss' parents on a business trip to New York. Dexter, of course, made life unbearable for Mr. Archer with his penchant for getting into trouble. Janet Waldo plays the title role of Corliss Archer. KTSA—8 P.M.

Mitropoulos

Young

Waldo