

DIAL LITES—TONIGHT

- 6:00—KNX—Most men would be happy to have Lana Turner following them around, but it leads to some disastrous results . . . including murder . . . in tonight's "Suspense" play, titled "The Flame Blue Gloves." Lana has an offbeat role as a female private eye who falls in love with the man she has been hired to shadow.
- 6:00—KFI—Claudette Colbert and Fred MacMurray will be co-starred in "Family Honeymoon," when their film, one of the year's most popular comedies, is adapted for the "Screen Guild Theater." One of the obstacles to be encountered by the harried honeymooners is the constant companionship of the bride's three children by a former marriage.
- 7:00—KFI—With a medley of Christmas, hillbilly and fairy tale music Perry Como and the Fontane Sisters will bring to "Supper Club" listeners a well-rounded program of tunes suitable to all tastes.
- 7:30—KECA—When Dad Foster "steals" a rare antique at an auction he gets the horse laugh from his family when they discover it is labeled with the inscription "Made in Hoboken."
- 8:30—KNX—"The Chinchilla Coat Murder Case" proves that this fur is truly a luxury item when its owner is found murdered. . . . This investigation is the job of "Mr. Keen, Tracer of Lost Persons."
