

DIAL LITES—TONIGHT

- 6:00—KNX—Eddie Cantor gets his first chance to "go straight" when he plays the part of a humble book-keeper who gets into a fantastic situation when he endeavors to help a fellow employe . . . it's "Double Entry" on the "Suspense" series tonight.
- 6:00—KFI—June Allyson and Peter Lawford will be the stars of the "Screen Guild Theater" adaptation of that old favorite "Little Women." They were also the principals in the movie version which was released this year.
- 6:30—KFI—Ed (Archie) Gardner and his "Duffy's Tavern" gang will go serious for their annual Christmas program, "Miracle in Manhattan" . . . this is the fourth consecutive presentation of this commercialless allegory.
- 7:00—KNX—The story of how the ever-popular carol "Silent Night" was written and carried to every country in the world will be told on the "Playhouse" tonight. This program met with such wide approval last year that it is being repeated by popular request.
- 9:30—KHJ—"Peter Salem" and his assistant, Marty, encounter a very unusual situation while hitch-hiking in the rain. It's all told during the "Affair of the Horrible Hitch."

TELE-TIPS