

RADIO PROGRAMS AND PERSONALITIES

TO MAKE YOUR CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS COMPLETE listen to the special Christmas program starring America's favorite tenor, Clark Dennis, in a quarter-hour of sentimental song of remembrance and devotion. KTSA—9:30 A.M.

JACK BENNY WILL BE THE GUEST STAR OVER CBS Christmas Day when The Actor's Company presents its gala, all-star one-hour production of "The Man Who Came to Dinner" on the "Hotpoint Hour." He will play the role of Sheridan Whiteside, created on the stage by Monty Woolley. The glittering cast will include Henry Fonda and John Garfield as narrators, and Charles Boyer, Gene Kelly, Gregory Peck, Dorothy McGuire and Rosalind Russell. KTSA—1 P.M.

Russell

THE ANNUAL CHRISTMAS MESSAGE of King George VI to the British Empire will be recorded over a special circuit from London and broadcast on CBS Sunday. KTSA—12:15 P.M.

LIONEL BARRYMORE, WHOSE ANNUAL PORTRAYAL of the miserly Scrooge in Charles Dickens' famous "Christmas Carol" is a must for holiday listeners, will broadcast his interpretation of this classic character over the Mutual network on Christmas Day. KMAC—2 P.M.

IN A SPECIAL CHRISTMAS DAY BROADCAST, CHAIRMAN Lyman Bryson and three distinguished guests, Clifton Fadiman, Eva Le Gallienne and Mark Van Doren, will read portions of classic Christmas stories on CBS' "Invitation to Learning" Sunday. KTSA—11 A.M.

SCREEN STAR RONALD COLMAN NARRATES THE touching story of the donkey that carried Joseph and Mary to Bethlehem, in Charles Tazewell's "The Small One," the Christmas program of CBS' "Family Hour of Stars" Sunday. KTSA—5 P.M.

THE MUSIC AND STORY OF THE UNIVERSALLY APPEALING "Nutcracker Suite" will be the highlight of the gala "Christmas Concert," to be featured on KTSA Sunday. Guest doctor will be the brilliant American musician, Sylvan Levin. KTSA—10:30 P.M.

PAULETTE GODDARD AND SIR CEDRIC HARDWICKE star Sunday in one of the most popular plays of the contemporary theater, "The Passing of the Third Floor Back," by Jerome K. Jerome. Paulette Goddard plays Stasia, the maid who longs for a better kind of life, and Sir Cedric Hardwicke is heard as the Stranger who comes from nowhere to bring love and understanding to the miserable residents of a boarding house. WOAI—7:30 P.M.

Colman

FOR THE 10th CONSECUTIVE YEAR, CBS' "Amos 'n' Andy" on Sunday will present Amos' interpretation of the Lord's Prayer to his little daughter Arbadella, one of the most famous of radio Christmas features. KTSA—6:30 P.M.

JACK BENNY PLANS TO spend Christmas Eve quietly at home decorating his Yule tree, but his happy solitude is suddenly broken when his gang drops in and hashes up the proceedings, during CBS' "Jack Benny Program" Sunday. KTSA—6 p.m.

FOR THE SECOND SUCCESSION year, and by popular request, CBS newsman Douglas Edwards Sunday tells the real story of Santa Claus, the top personality of the day, in an intimate, first-hand sketch on the CBS word portrait program, "The Newsmakers." KTSA—10:05 a.m.

"SHOW TIME"

San Antonio's Newest Nite Club
CORNER NAVARRO AND CROCKETT

2 FLOOR SHOWS
NITELY

HELD OVER FOR THE THIRD WEEK BY POPULAR DEMAND!

MAR QUITA

Latin American Bombshell acclaimed by the critics as tops in the art of how to dress
with

MAKE RESERVA-