

DIAL LITES - TONIGHT

- 7:00—KNX—That noted bon vivant and wit, George Jessel, joins his pals, "George and Gracie Allen" for an exchange of sharp remarks on their show tonight.
- 7:00—KFI—When a woman was reported missing from her home in Memphis, Tenn., Paul Fairleigh of the Press-Scimitar began a patient investigation which resulted in the capture of her murderer. For this he will receive the program's $500 award for outstanding journalistic endeavor.
- 7:30—KNX--The Mello Men join lovely Lucille Norman in a salute to the hit songs of the first half of the 20th Century on "Hollywood Music Hall."
- 8:00—KECA—There's neither murder nor intrigue in "The Singular Case of the Bandaged Bridegroom," but Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson find plenty to engage their talents in this thriller that promises to be a memorable show.
- 9:30—KHJ—A private detective with "An Eye for Murder" parlays a bail bondsman and a blonde Venus into a $5000 fee during "International Airport" broadcast.

TELE TIPS