

DIAL LITES—TONIGHT

- 6:30—KNX—A factual, documented drama, telling the nation-girdling, energetic story of the bread baking industry is the hour-long broadcast of the "Rising Wonder," as narrated by screen star Mark Stevens.
- 7:00—KICA—Two promising light-heavyweights will swap punches in the feature event at Madison Square Garden, when Dick Wagner meets Nick Barone.
- 7:00—KFI—William Powell recreates his original role in "One Way Passage" for "Screen Directors Playhouse." This is the story of an escaped convict and a woman, who is mortally ill, who meet and fall in love during a journey home from the Far East.
- 7:00—KHJ—Secretary of Labor Maurice Tobin will "Meet the Press" and be interviewed by reporters from the New York Times, the Portland Press Herald, the Detroit Times and Time Magazine.
- 9:00—KNX—It's turn about for Lucille Ball and hubby George when they become accidentally handcuffed together during the "My Favorite Husband" broadcast tonight. During the time the Coopers are linked George finds himself under the hair dryer and "Liz" later has to stand by at the barber's while her husband gets a shave.
