THE TRADITIONAL YEAR-END PRESENTATION OF "The House of the World," an original allegorical drama by Nila Mack, is given by KTSA-CBS' "Let's Pretend" players Saturday at 10:05 a.m. "The House of the World," added to the "Let's Pretend" repertoire in 1933, tells the story of Good Will's triumph over Intolerance, Greed, Selfishness and Poverty. Good Will is symbolized by a young child, who will be played by 9-year-old Butch Cavell. Maurice Brown composes and conducts original music for the fantasy series which Author Nila Mack produces and directs. KTSA—10:05 A.M.

THE STORY OF VAUGHN MONROE'S BAND OVER TEN years will be told in song on the New Year's Eve program of KTSA-CBS' "Camel Caravan With Vaughn Monroe," Saturday at 6:30 p.m. The band, established in Boston in 1940, will present its hit tunes of the decade, including "Tangerine," "Let It Snow," "Ballerina," "Riders in the Sky" and "There I've Said It Again." The program will close with "Auld Lang Syne" sung by the choir of the Moon Maids and Moon Men. KTSA—6:30 P.M.

AN ALL-MUSIC PROGRAM FEATURING THE 12 TOP tunes he's sung during 1949 will be presented by Gene Autry, star of KTSA-CBS' "Gene Autry Show," Saturday at 7:00 p.m. The songs, selected on the basis of requests received during the year, are "Buttons and Bows," "Faraway Places," "Candy Kisses," "Sunflower," "Careless Hands," "Cruising Down the River," "Ghost Riders in the Sky," "A Roomfull of Roses," "Someday," "Lucky Old Sun," "Mule Train" and "Auld Lang Syne." Autry's Melody Ranch gang, giving a lyrical assist, include the Cass County Boys, the Pinafores, Pat Buttram, Johnny Bond and Carl Cotner, who conducts the orchestra. William Burch writes and directs. KTSA—7 P.M.

CHARLES (BUDDY) ROGERS, HERO OF INNUMERABLE musical and romantic film stories, will be the guest panelist for KMAC-Mutual's "Twenty Questions" Broadcast Saturday. Rogers will join with regular panelists Fred VanDeventer, Florence Rinard, Herb Polesie and Johnny McPhee in playing the ever-popular "animal, vegetable, or mineral" game. Bill Slater moderates these fun sessions. KMAC—7 P.M.

NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS, WHICH USUALLY TURN out to be more fragile than mother's best china, will be strengthened by a cash value when John Reed King airs a public tug o' war between human determination and human frailty on "Give and Take" at 12:30 p.m., Saturday over KTSA-CBS. Best of all, every time that frailty—the defending champion—wins a tug, the American Heart Association will receive a cash contribution as a reverse-salute to a weak will. King will select a contestant from his studio audience as a special "New Year's Resolution Man." The object of the game—and women can be expected to love it—is to find out how it takes a man to slip from his noble Jan. I resolve to eliminate those few little shortcomings he (or his wife) noticed in 1949. KTSA—12:30 P.M.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE CONVENTION IN NEW YORK of more than 10,000 members of the American Association for the Advancement of Science will be reported on CBS' "Adventures in Science" with Watson Davis as emcee, Saturday at 2:15 p.m. KTSA—2:15 P.M.

EMCEE RALPH EDWARDS WILL WELCOME THE ENTIRE University of California Rose Bowl team, and its coach, "Pappy" Waldorf, to the "Truth or Consequences" program on New Year's Eve, Saturday at 7:30 p.m. The program will originate at the March Field Army Air Base, near Riverside, Calif. WOAI—7:30 P.M.

ITS NEW YEAR'S EVE AND THE ENTIRE GRAVES family is ready for partying, but can't decide which invitation to accept, on KTSA-CBS' "Junior Miss" show Saturday at 10:30 a.m. They're still waiting for the best offer at midnight. Barbara Whiting stars as Judy Graves. Henry Garson writes and directs. Fran Van Hartesvelt is the producer. KTSA—10:30 A.M.

EMCEE DAN SEYMOUR REVEALED THAT THE FABULOUS Phantom of KTSA-CBS' "Sing It Again" is a father—and it will be worth $52,000 in prizes and cash for the listener who identifies the Phantom and answers one question about him on Saturday at 9 p.m. Another added clue: If you want to find our Phantom's address go West, young man, go West. KTSA—9 P.M.

J. W. DUGGAN, GOVERNOR OF THE U.S. FARM CREDIT Administration, will be the guest of Reporter Claude Mahoney on "CBS Farm News," Saturday at 2:30 p.m. over KTSA. Duggan will review the progress of Production Credit associations during the past year, in which more than 100 farmers have repaid the government and bought back their capital stock. Houston will receive a special salute as the first district whose credit associations became wholly locally owned. KTSA—2:30 P.M.

SCREENLAND'S DAVID NIVEN IS CAST AS A BACHELOR whose friends bet him he'll be married within a year in "The Busy Bachelors," on KTSA-CBS' "Stars Over Hollywood" Saturday at 12 noon. To win their wager, Niven's friends set a trap using as bait a girl named Marie, played by Joy Terry. Robert Nye produces, Dave Young directs and Rex Koury conducts the music. KTSA—12 NOON.

FRANZ LEHAR'S DELIGHTFUL MUSICAL ROMANCE, "The Merry Widow," will be adapted by KMAC-Mutual's "Chicago Theater Of The Air" for its New Year's Eve broadcast Saturday. Soprano Nancy Carr, tenor David Poleri and baritone Earl Wilkie will be co-starred in the major singing roles for this radio production. The adaptation of which was penned by Jack La Frandre, writer-director for the series. KMAC—9 P.M.

CAMERON MITCHELL, MILDRED DUNNOCK and Howard Smith, featured in the Broadway smash hit "Death of a Salesman," star in KTSA-CBS' "Grand Central Station" drama "The Impostor," Saturday at 11:30 a.m. "The Impostor" concerns a young reporter whose human interest New Year's story never got printed, because instead of writing it, he lived it. Martin Horrell produces, Ira Ashley directs. KTSA—11:30 A.M.
