

DIAL LITES - TONIGHT

- 6:00—KNX—Groucho Marx and his comedy quiz, "You Bet Your Life," start the new year with a $20 credit for each couple which they pyramid in hopes of being the lucky winners of the $1000 Grand Prize.
- 8:30—KFI—The "Great Gildersleeve's" niece, Marjorie, and Bronco Thompson become engaged so in the very best Emily Post tradition he calls on the prospective in-laws . . . will he bungle a fine romance?
- 8:30—KNX—Details of the ninth annual Dr. Christian Award Competition will be announced by Jean Hersholt during his broadcast tonight.
- 9:00—KECA—Leaders of the Democratic party throughout the country, headed by Alben W. Barkley, will participate in a special program, titled "Cross Country—Cross Section," to discuss and sample "grass root" opinion on the issues before the second session of the 81st Congress.
- 9:30—KHJ—A gangster who tries to bribe a college hero throw a basketball game discovers that, no matter what the offer you can't trifle with love, in a story titled "Death Tips the Odds."

TELE-TIPS