

RADIO PROGRAMS AND PERSONALITIES

CLIFTON WEBB RE-ENACTS THE TITLE ROLE, SUPPORTED by Robert Stack and Coleen Gray, in a full-hour adaptation of the motion picture comedy hit "Mr. Belvedere Goes to College" on C.B.S.' "Lux Radio Theater" Monday. KTSA—8 P.M.

TALENT IS WHERE YOU FIND IT! And Arthur Godfrey finds it for you on his Talent Scouts show. Listen to these newcomers as they take their first step to stardom on Arthur Godfrey Talent Scouts. KTSA—7:30 P.M.

FERRUCCIO TAGLIAVINI, MET TENOR who is a favorite with Telephone Hour listeners, will be guest artist on this program Monday, over the N.B.C. network. Assisted by Conductor Donald Voorhees and the Bell Telephone orchestra, he will sing three numbers. WOAI—8 P.M.

CAROLINE GILES, JUST SETTTLING DOWN TO wedded bliss, learns that the whole town considers her new husband a homicidal maniac, on "Inner Sanctum" Monday. Barbara Weeks stars as Caroline, whose husband David is suspected of having committed a series of brutal murders. Caroline is afraid, but decides to stand by him, until the next murder victim turns out to be their own servant girl. From then on, Caroline is one bride who hopes that her husband will neglect her. KTSA—7 P.M.

ON HER "CALL BOARD" PROGRAM MONDAY, AMY Freeman Lee will discuss (1) Bright Shawl Galleries' one-man show of Kelly Fearing, member of the faculty of the Fine Arts Dept., University of Texas. (2) San Antonio Symphony concert featuring Robert Casadesus, French pianist. (3) San Antonio Art League Gallery talk for adults on "The Foundations of Modern Sculpture", illustrated with slides, by Alexander Archipenko, leading contemporary sculptor. KONO—8:30 P.M.

FEUDING WITH MRS. O'REILLY, THE LANDLADY, Professor Kropotkin actually but literally knocks the props from under "My Friend Irma's" plan for an elopement with her ne'er-do-well boy friend, Al. Marie Wilson plays Irma. John Brown is heard at Al; Hans Conried as Kropotkin and Gloria Gordon as Mrs. O'Reilly. Cathy Lewis co-stars as the feather-brained blonde's roommate. Cy Howard is producer-director. KTSA—9 P.M.

A FATHER RISES FROM HIS GRAVE TO CLAIM HIS murderer in the N.B.C. "Lights Out" presentation of "The Riverman" over WOAI-TV Monday. Jack La Rue narrates the strange tale of vengeance in the bayous of Louisiana. WOAI—8 P.M.

BRITISH CONSUL GENERAL FOR THE Southwest, J. Thyne Henderson, will be in San Antonio Monday to appear on Trinity University's Radio Forum. The British diplomat will discuss economic planning in Britain in the light of the general elections next month. Other speakers will be Dr. W. S. Livingston, University of Texas; Harry Hotchkin, oil operator; Neil Beaton, attorney, and Miss Phyllis Wiseman, San Antonio exchange teacher from England. KMAC—8 P.M.

SEEKING TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF boy friend Bill's loss of memory which resulted when a kitchen shelf collapsed and hit him on the head, Beulah tells him that after seven years, he has set a date for their wedding, as C.B.S.' "Beulah" show begins another week of laughs Monday. Bill reluctantly agrees to go through with the ceremony. Then his memory begins to clear and a race against time develops, with Beulah trying to get him to the altar before he remembers all. Hattie McDaniel stars at Beulah and Ernest Whitman as Bill. Tom McKnight produces. KTSA—6 P.M.

IF THEY KNOW THE ANSWERS, BOB HAWK HAS the questions, and that means prizes and fun on The Bob Hawk Show. This is the quiz show that has the famous "Lemac" question! KTSA—9:30 P.M.

Godfrey

Hotchkin